REIMAGINING WHAT IS POSSIBLE

This is your time!

*Two Stories
that opened my eyes and changed me forever!*

The Fundamental Attribution Error

Why I am the most hopeful I have ever been in my career

Pandemic laid bare our interdependence and systemic inequities

The power of technology,
data and
analytics

A Historic Moment of Change, Challenge, and Vast Opportunity

Integrated
networks and disruptive partnerships

Redefining health
and human services

Advancing
neuroscience

The 6 accelerants that can increase your goals for sustainability, transformation and impact

1. Begin with the end in mind with crystal clear clarity and focus
2. Follow the data and science and continuously create evidence through the lens of equity
3. Always bending the arc toward prevention
4. Be proximate with and in community- never assuming your assumptions are correct or doubt people and community strengths
5. Unleash the larger role of the social sector
6. 10X your impact through influence!

Let's have a conversation
